THE FIRST...

But through it all, I realised what I actually like involves speaking... Especially after Covid19 hit and livestream became a thing! Eventually realising that being effectively BILINGUAL brought so much ease to the clients that engages me because it is a 2-in-1 packaged deal which pretty much saves the trouble to look for one host instead of 2.

My wife and I are glad that we engaged JK as our Emcee for our wedding dinner. We met JK through a mutual friend's wedding and was impressed by his emceeing skills. We subsequently decided to engage him for our own wedding. He promised us by the second march-in the crowd would be hyped up and wild and true to his word, it happened. Our guests had a very good impression of him and everyone enjoyed the wedding dinner. Thank you JK!

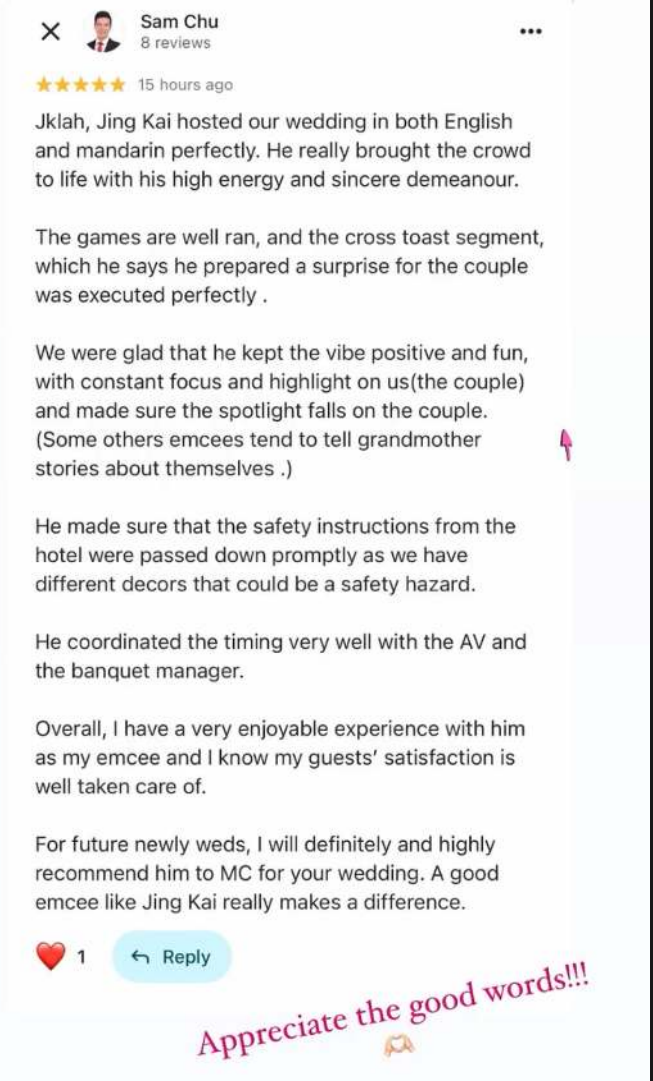

FEEDBACK

Always a great great pleasure receiving these feedbacks after an event or many many months after their event! I don't just do weddings if you are wondering. Do remember to book me in advance to secure the dates. Always very 可惜 whenever I miss the dates 😞

Tbh impressive emcee-ing skills !!

I've emceed few times for the Chinese portions only and was already struggling w impromptu-ing but you were really good!

YESTERDAY AT 23:26

So far the wedding I attended, you're one of the best ones.

The couple don't appear awkward. Not very formal setting as well

We had the pleasure of having Jingkai as our emcee for our wedding banquet in March 2025. We first saw him in action at a friend's wedding and were truly impressed by his hosting skills!

Before the big day, we had a simple meeting where he took the time to understand us as a couple, which really made a difference. On the actual day, my partner and I felt completely at ease—we had zero stress about the flow of the banquet because we trusted Jingkai 100%, and he absolutely delivered.

Jingkai hosted both our solemnization and banquet. Even when there were delays, he kept our guests engaged and entertained. We also received great feedback from our family and friends, who appreciated how seamlessly he switched between English and Chinese.

Without a doubt, we would choose Jingkai as our emcee again. Highly recommended! 😊

Hi Jing Kai! Payment's done for the remaining amount! Thank you soooo much for today!! 🙏🙏🙏
